

Ranting Roaring Willie

Rattlin' Roarin' Willie

Hartburn, Northumberland

1.

3

4

5

6

9

11

13

16

17

19

22

See notes re editing
ABC source: Henry Atkinson's original MS, Hartburn, N'umberland, 1694, no. HA.134

Notes: "Unedited". Many inconsistencies in the MS, but I have refrained from editing as it is a tune commonly found elsewhere. CGP

See Matt Seattle's reconstruction <http://www.folknortheast.com/learn/core-tunes/rattlin-roarin-willie>

Transcribed by: vmp.Chris Partington, Jan. 2004

Historical, geographical allegiances: 1/4

Origins: England

Ranton Roaring Willy

Rantin' Roarin' Willie [1]

Slip Jig

2.

5

8

13

16

21

ABC source: William Vickers' music manuscript collection (Northumberland, 1770, p. 78)

Transcribed by: AK/Fiddler's Companion

Rattlin Roarin Willie

Rantin' Roarin' Willie [1]

Slip Jig

Allegro

3. tr

4 tr

7 tr

10 tr

13 tr

16

19

22

24 3

28

31 tr

34

37

40

43

45

47

49

51

53

56

59

Book: Robert Riddell - Collection of Scotch Galwegian Border Tunes (1794, p . 3)

Transcribed by: AK/Fiddler's Companion

Rattling Roaring Willie [1]

4. tr.

5. tr. tr. tr.

8. tr.

13. tr. tr.

Book: Complete Tutor Violin (c. 1815)

Transcribed by: Dr. Evan Jones, 2005

Rantin' Roarin' Willie [1]

The Mitford Galloway

5.

3

5

8

10

12

14

The Traditional Tune Archive

ABC source: Bruce & Stokoe - Northumbrian Minstrelsy (1882)

Notes: Researcher Matt Seattle remarks that Bruce and Stokoe's version is taken from Northumbrian piper Robert Bewick's c. 1835 manuscripts, although the "Northumbrian Minstrelsy" version is "a partial and, regrettably, careless transcription....(that) has since been widely copied along with its errors" [<http://lbs.net/lbs/matt/rrw/pipes.htm>]

Transcribed by: AK/Fiddler's Companion